Welcome to this tidy, solid ranch on the back streets of Valley View with a great location, yard and oversized detached garage with private driveway. This home has two-bedroom one bath living room and kitchen on the first floor and then a fully finished basement with a second kitchenette with stove and sink and laundry below. Property and home have been well-maintained for years and just needs your updating. Front and side porches offer outdoor sitting space currently equipped with removable ramps for easy access from rear. Call for more information today and make this whom yours this Fall.
